CHAMPIONS ARE STILL INVINCIBLE.

Humble The Haughty Pride of Chesty Paducah Eleven.

SCORE WAS 28 TO 0.

Unbeaten, Unterrified And Unequaled, The Local Boys Have Not Lost a Game.

With an honest confession that is good for the soul, the Paducah New-Democrat acknowledges defeat and takes its medicine without even a wry face. Here is the way it tells the sad story:

"The face of the Great Father is turned from the lodges of the tribe of Paducah and there is much sorrowing in the village.

Borne by a fleet-footed courier, news has arrived of a great battle fought near the village of the tribe of Hopkinsville in which the Paducah High School football team was defeated and routed by the Hopkinsville football team while the war drums on the hill side were beating the tune of "28 to 0."

Not one time did the Paducah High School get within 15 yards of Hopkinsville's goal, the ball being kept constantly on Paducah's side of the field. Outweighed and outpointed, the Paducah team were not equal to the occasion when it came to putting one over on the Christian county boys.

Crippled by the absence of Hughes in the back field and Mitchell on left end the Paducah team did not expect to win the game by a great majority, but they were confident that they would win.

Forward passes failed to work in the right way and end runs were promptly blocked, while line bucks were stopped almost instantly. On the other hand, Hopkinsville rarely failed in end runs or plays through the line, making her distance at will.

By winning the game Saturday, Hopkinsville put both hands on the pennant and showed her determination to make a hard fight for it. She has several other high schools to go up against before the game with Paducah on Thanksgiving and it may be that at that time Paducah will be back in form and the championship will once more rest in the Indian village of the Purchase."

There is not much more to tell, except to add that the Hopkinsville boys showed superior training at every turn. The teams were pretty equally matched in weight.

The line-up was as follows:

Hopkinsville	Paducah
Petrie l. e.	F. Browning
Jarrett, Capt. l. t.	R. Elliott
Robertson l. g.	M. Jones
Armstrong c.	J. Harth
Vass r. g.	F. King

Green r. e.	D. Humphries
Browning q. b.	P. Harth
Kelly f. b.	H. Ogilvie
W. Cate l. h. b.	W. Browning
Abbitt r. h. b.	C. Yarbrough
Length of quarters—10: 15: 10: 15.
Referee—Berkley, of V. M. I.
Umpire—Craig, of Paducah.
Field Judge—Davis, of McLean.
Head Linesman—Hudspeth, of McLean.
Line Referees—Sights and Cravens

SCORE:
Hopkinsville 28
Paducah 0

The locals played an aggressive game from the start, moving like machinery, and succeeded in making one touchdown early in the game. The visitors did their best work in the second quarter, preventing any other scores in the first half. In the second half they showed their lack of endurance and weakened until they were babies in the hands of the champs, even the light weights handling the big fellows from Paducah with apparent ease.

Congressman A. O. Stanley will speak at the Court House this evening in the interest of his candidacy and the Democratic party. Everybody is invited to come out and hear him.

BRAVE SOLDIER

Answers Last Summons At His Home Near Pembroke.

Mr. Thos. J. Tandy died at his home near Pembroke Friday evening aged about 65 years. He had been ill for a long time and his condition had been critical for a week or more. He was unmarried and lived with the family of his brother, Wm. H. Tandy. He leaves one other brother, David A. Tandy.

Mr. Tandy was a man of prominence in the county and was a veteran of the Lost Cause.

Funeral services were held at the residence Saturday afternoon and the body was interred in Rosedale Cemetery at Pembroke, by the side of his brother Jack Tandy, who died a few years ago.

Lost Last Son.

The little son of Joe Martin, aged two years, died on East Ninth street Friday night of stomach trouble and the interment took place near Shron Grove Sunday. This is the second death in Mr. Martin's family recently, another son having died several weeks ago.

Every man on the local team deserved praise.

Armstrong, who had played only once before showed up fine for a raw recruit, getting into every play, breaking through the line and breaking up plays behind the line for a loss. His passes were true and he never failed to open a hole.

Robertson, also a new man, handled his man like a veteran and several times broke through and blocked punts. He kicked three out of five goals and nearly succeeded at a place kick, his first attempt.

Capt. Jarrett, one of the old champions, played a star game as usual, gaining repeatedly through the line and making two of the five touchdowns.

Petrie, although playing with a bad ankle, never missed a tackle around his end and handled the forward passes well.

Vass, who played with the team for the first time, broke through and broke up plays behind the line time after time and his offensive work was a great help to Kelly.

Radford's line bucks were a feature of the game. He cleared the way for Jarrett in two touchdowns and Paducah's big full back, Ogilvie, was never able to gain over him.

"Pink" Green, the little end weighing only 118, would break up the interference and get the runner every time. He got every forward pass with precision and several times got through to the quarterback before being stopped, who was the only man between him and a touchdown. Brownell who ran the team, used every play to the best advantage, and returned punts for nice gains. He made two touchdowns, one of them by a 30-yard run.

Mr. Laurence Manning, President and General Manager of the Manning-Hughes Co., Engineers and Constructors, of Camden, S. C., is in the city in consultation with Mr. Chas. Van den Burgh, of the Kentucky-Tennessee Traction Co.

Kelly, also a champion of 1909, yicked his hole well on line bucks and several times went through for 10 and 20 yards. His defensive work was faultless. One of his ferocious bucks carried the ball over for a touchdown.

Abbitt, playing left half, although he weighed only 124 pounds, made repeated gains through the line and end and assisted the runners by strong interference.

Cate, who played his first game, showed promising ability and proved to be the fastest man on the field and a hard and sure tackler.

Prof. Davis A. Clark, in a burst of enthusiasm declared: "There is not enough yellow in that team to paint a pin head."

Somebody started the song "Has anybody here seen Kelly," but it ended in a class yell. The yells were led by Joseph Gary and at the end of the game three cheers were given for Paducah.

RECEPTION AT NIGHT.

At night the champions gave the vanquished papooses a reception and dance at the Eagles' Hall and all had a jolly good time. The Paducah boys were nice, clean young fellows and the locals spared their feelings by cutting out any guying or crowing over them. Several pretty girls from Paducah were in the party and they went home with the opinion forced upon them that the Hopkinsville boys were not a bad lot of fellows.

COMMONWEALTH CASES NEXT

Circuit Court Resumes The Trial of Criminal Cases.

SEVERAL FOR TODAY.

Motion for Rehearing in the Diuguid Nuisance Case to be Heard this Morning.

The suit of L. E. Fowler, administrator of H. J. Sharp, against the Planters Bank and Trust Co. and Carrie M. McKee on two notes executed by Mrs. McKee, amounting with interest, to nearly $3,000 was tried out the latter part of last week before a jury. Previous payment was pleaded and the jury returned a verdict for defendant, sustaining the plea. The plaintiff was represented by Trimble & Bell and W. F. Fowler, the defendants by John Stites and C. H. Bush. This was one of the most interesting cases tried during this term of court and was hard fought throughout.

A motion for a new trial has been made and if this is refused the case will probably be taken to the court of appeals.

Another suit between the same parties was filed Friday, in which plaintiff sues defendants for payment of notes of $3,000 and $4,000, alleged to have been given in 1900 and 1901 and which have been lost.

Commonwealth matters were resumed in Circuit court yesterday.

Lewis Bell and wife, Sissy Bell, charged with grand larceny at Lafayette, were tried and the jury still had the case yesterday afternoon. Alvin Clark, appointed to defend them, made an eloquent plea for their acquittal but they were found guilty.

Tom Moss, col., petit larceny, was tried and found guilty on a plea of guilty. He was given 6 months at hard labor.

A motion for a new trial in the case of Geo. Diuguid, col., convicted of maintaining a nuisance, will be argued this morning. Diuguid is a notorious gambler and the trial jury gave him a fine of $25 and 100 days at hard labor. The police have been troubled with him for years and the city is greatly interested in the case. He is now out on a bond of $150.

Newspaper Plant.

The office of the late Hopkinsville Messenger, later Democrat, will be sold by the Master Commissioner Thursday of this week.
